A MASTER'S DEGREE THAT'S READY FOR YOU

Arizona State University (ASU) and the Abdullah Al Ghurair Foundation for Education (AGFE) are collaborating to offer scholarships to high-achieving disadvantaged Arab youth to complete their master's degrees online at ASU.

THE AL GHURAIR OPEN LEARNING SCHOLARS PROGRAM will be offering scholarships for 28 different specializations, spanning the fields of engineering, technology, health, education, tourism, and more.

OUR SUPPORT

Guiding your success: ASU and AGFE will be supporting you throughout your academic experience in a number of ways to ensure your success.

Financial Support: Scholarship from AGFE covers the cost of your program.

Scholar's Network: Connect with scholars and share experiences.

Innovative Education Technology: Curriculum designed for student success.

Top Tier Faculty: Leveraging advanced research to support our programs.

Together, ASU and AGFE are dedicated to providing scholars the opportunity to complete master's degrees 100% online. Our supportive community and exceptional programs and resources from America's most innovative university, make earning your master's degree online a seamless experience.
